

NY Artists Unlimited presents:

Black Gold - The Passion of Aleijadinho

Writer & Director: Melba LaRose
Stage Managers: G.V Maldonado & Joyce Pena
Costume Designer: Frances Eldred
Choreographer: Francis J. Roach

“You must keep on performing this piece. It’s a gem.”

“Depiction through poetry, music, projections and politics of period is very powerful. Last scene was stunning.”

“Black Gold - The Passion of Aleijadinho” is based on the life of Antonio Francisco Lisboa (1738-1814), Baroque sculptor of Brazil.

Poetry: Oswald de Andrade, Antonio Tomas Gonzaga, Cecilia Meireles. Music: Heitor Villa-Lobos, Antonio Carlos Gomes, Francisco Mignone. Dance: Minuet, Lundu, Jongo, Maracatu, Caixambu
